

A scatter plot showing the distribution of 1000 data points (blue dots) on a 2D grid. The points are clustered into several groups, each labeled with a number (0-9). The clusters are distributed across the grid, with some numbers appearing more frequently than others. The grid lines are light gray, and the background is white.

 PCA_1